

Business Economics

www.palgrave-journals.com/be/

Editor: Robert Thomas Crow, Burlingame, California, USA

2010: VOLUME 45 • 4 ISSUES PER VOLUME

Print ISSN: 0007-666X Online ISSN: 1554-432X

Business Economics is the official journal of the National Association for Business Economics

Aims and Scope

We live in unprecedented economic times. It's now more crucial than ever to have access to clear, cogent analysis and insightful commentary about the economy and the economic outlook for business. Business Economics is compelling reading for all of those with a practical interest in how economics is used within business, and serves as an essential source of practical information for people who apply economics in their jobs. It fulfils this purpose by:

- providing a leading forum for debating solutions to critical business problems and the analysis of key business issues.
- providing best-practice models, tools and hands-on techniques from professionals in business.
- representing an important channel for summaries of action-oriented analysis aimed at solving business problems.
- giving insight into how to apply economics within business and how economic professionals respond to challenges in the workplace; and
- representing and interpreting current economic information and issues that are educational and useful on the job.

Online Features and Site License Access:

- Online archive available back to 2005
- A site license provides access to all content published during the supply period. Access is granted to a further rolling four-year archive where available during the supply period only. Archive content not included in the license agreement is available to purchase.
- Users benefit from all the online features outlined on page 3
- Business Economics is indexed and/or abstracted in: ABS Academic Journal Quality Guide; SwetsWise, Econlit; Eonis (Online Catalog of the ZBW, German National Library of Economics); Infotrieve; ABI/Inform from ProQuest; Business Source Elite (from EBSCO); RePEc (Research Papers in Economics).