Aims and Scope:

The Geneva Risk and Insurance Review strives to publish high quality papers that advance our understanding of industry behavioural changes under uncertainty. The journal direction is towards economics in general, focusing on risk and insurance in particular. Although most of the papers published are theoretical, The Geneva Risk and Insurance Review also publishes tests and competing theories in order to expand understanding of insurance economics.

Published twice a year, this international journal provides a forum for the exchange of academic findings and views on the technical aspects of risk and insurance economics, whilst also supporting and encouraging research. The journal aims to publish:

- Authoritative contributions regarding risk, insurance and related areas.
- Theoretical papers as well as empirical and/or experimental research for global dissemination.
- New innovative ideas in insurance economics.

Online Features:

- Complete online archive available back to 1976.
- Advance online publication - definitive, citable version of papers (complete with DOI) available online ahead of print.
- The Geneva Risk and Insurance Review is indexed and/or abstracted in: ABI/INFORM; Association of Business Schools’ Academic Journal Quality Guide; Australian Business Deans Council (ABDC) Journal Quality List; Current Contents/Social & Behavioral Sciences®; Current Contents Collections/Business Collection; EBSCO; ECONIS; EconLit; E-JEL; Expanded Academic; International Bibliography of the Social Sciences (IBSS); International Current Awareness Services; ISI Alerting Services; Journal of Economic Literature; Risk Abstracts; SCOPUS, Social Sciences Citation Index®; Social SciSearch; Sociological Abstracts.
- The Geneva Risk and Insurance Review is included in Palgrave Open which offers authors of accepted papers the option of publishing their articles with immediate open access upon publication. See page 55.

† 2014 Journal Citation Reports® (Thomson Reuters, 2015)