Aims and Scope:

Interest Groups & Advocacy engages broadly with the politics of interests. It records and analyzes how advocacy by groups, movements and lobbying professionals shapes policy, and it addresses important debates about how such interests are mobilized and maintained. It will cast a wide net across politics and society to identify the forces, strategies, and tactics that determine policy change. Open to diverse methodologies and seeking to address both scholars and practitioners, it welcomes studies that address theoretical issues, reports rigorous empirical work, and delivers insight on the range of change agents, and their behaviour and impact.

Online Features:

• From 2015 IGA will be published online only
• Complete online archive available from 2012
• Advance online publication - definitive, citable version of papers (complete with DOI) available online ahead of print.
• Interest Groups & Advocacy is included in Palgrave Open which offers authors of accepted papers the option to publish their articles with immediate open access upon publication. See page 53. Palgrave Open articles published to date:
  - Why interest organizations do what they do: Assessing the explanatory potential of ‘exchange’ approaches