Maritime Economics & Logistics is an official journal of the International Association of Maritime Economists.

Aims and Scope:

Maritime Economics & Logistics (MEL) is a scholarly peer-reviewed publication for academics, practitioners and policy-makers that promotes maritime economics and logistics as a distinct and well-defined branch of both applied economics and international business.

MEL is a key source for peer-reviewed research and policy perspectives of direct relevance to economists, researchers, academics and those in professional practice with an interest in maritime economics, maritime policy, transport economics and applied economics.
