Aims and Scope:

Psychoanalysis, Culture & Society is an international journal publishing original, refereed articles. The journal critically addresses the intersection between psychoanalysis and the social world and explores the roles psychoanalysis might play in bringing about social justice and progressive social change. Articles focus on the political or social implications of their topic. PCS publishes both clinical and academic papers and welcomes relevant contributions from all disciplines and all psychoanalytic schools of thought.

Online Features:

• Online archive available back to 2004.
• Advance online publication - definitive, citable version of papers (complete with DOI) available online ahead of print.
• Psychoanalysis, Culture & Society is indexed and/or abstracted in: Australian Research Council ERA Ranked Journals List; CSA Worldwide Political Science Abstracts; CSA Sociological Abstracts; Infotrieve; Modern Language Association International Bibliography; MLA Guide to Periodicals; Studies on Women and Gender Abstracts; OCLC; Psychological Abstracts; PsycINFO; SwetsWise.

Users also benefit from all the online features outlined on page 3