

European Group of Risk and Insurance Economists MEMBERSHIP FORM

EGRIE (<http://www.egrie.org>) is a European based non-profit organisation dedicated to promoting research on risk and insurance. This is achieved through the organisation of scientific conferences and meetings, the publication of research materials and the creation of a contact network amongst the concerned parties. EGRIE was created by the Geneva Association (<http://www.genevaassociation.org/>) in 1973 and has been supported by this association since then.

Membership to EGRIE is open to all risk and insurance researchers.

Membership Rates 2009

Full membership	Student membership
€90 / US$135	€50 / US$75

As part of annual membership to EGRIE, members will receive a print subscription to the Geneva Risk and Insurance Review (<http://www.palgrave-journals.com/grir>), the official publication of EGRIE. If online-only access is preferred, please tick here

Palgrave Macmillan will manage membership on behalf of EGRIE.
